The Star and Sentinel.

INDIAN SUMMER.

Just after the death of the flowers,
And before they are buried in snow,
There comes a festival season,
When Nature is all aglow—
Aglow with a mystical splendor
That rivals the brightness of Spring—
Aglow with a beauty more tender
Than aught which fair Summer can bring.

Some spirit akin to the rainbow,
That borrows its magical dyes,
And mantles the far-spreading landscape
In hues that bewilder the eyes.
The sun from his cloud-pillowed chamber,
Smiles soft on a vision so gay,
And dreams that his favorite children,
The flowers have not yet passed away.

There's a luminous mist on the mountains,
A light, azure haze in the air,
As if angels, while heavenward soaring,
Had left their bright robes floating there.
The breeze is so soft, so caressing,
It seems a mute token of love,
And floats to the heart like a blessing
From some happy spirit above.

These days, so serene and so charming,
Awaken a dreamy delight:
A tremulous, tearful enjoyment,
Like soft strains of music at night.
We know they are fading and fleeting,
That quickly, too quickly, they'll end,
And we watch them with yearning affection,
As at parting we watch a dear friend.

Oh! beautiful Indian Summer!
Thou favorite child of the year—
Thou darling, whom nature enriches
With gifts and adornments so dear!
How vain would we woo thee to linger
On mountain and meadow awhile, [ture,
For our hearts like the sweet haunts of Nature
Rejoice and grow young in thy smile.

Not alone to the sad fields of Autumn,
Dost thou a lost brightness restore,
But thou bringest a world-weary spirit
Sweet dreams of its childhood once more.
Thy loveliness fills us with memories
Of all that was brightest and best—
Thy peace and serenity offer
A foretaste of Heavenly rest.

AFTER.

After the shower, the tranquil sun;
After the snow, the emerald leaves;
Silver stars when the day is done;
After the harvest, the golden sheaves.

After the clouds, the violet sky;
After the tempest, the lull of waves;
Quiet woods when the winds go by;
After the battle, peaceful graves.

After the knell, the wedding bells;
After the bud, the radiant rose;
Joyful greetings from sad farewells;
After our weeping, sweet repose.

After the burden, the blissful meed;
After the flight, the downy nest;
After the furrow, the waking seed;
After the shadowy river—rest!

CIVILITY.

"A smile for one of mean degree,
A courteous bow for one of high,
So modulated both that each
Saw friendship in his eye."

A beggar to stop me to halloo at me on the street! Why should he single me out from the throng? Why did I not act as I have seen many do? Why not jostle him rudely, taunt him, scorn his smile, pass a counterfeit upon him, or pass him by unheedingly? Christianity does not teach that, civilization does not impart that, civility forbids it, society recoils from flagrant arts, but encourages too often uncivil deeds towards these unfortunate creatures. Civility is courtesy, urbanity, and as long as our language shall exist, these synonyms will remain.

General Washington remarked that he would never allow any one to surpass him in courtesy, thus he answered those who were amazed at his returning the bow of a colored person. Civility does not consist in bows and scrapings, and smiles of adoration to friends and benefactors. The selfish, unfortunate and poverty-stricken are all to be objects of this refining grace. The poor you have always with you, you see and hear them daily. If you have nothing substantial to bestow, no mite to cast in, be civil, take pains to act and speak in a manner to heal their misery. Restrain your blows, cuffs, sneers, and coarseness. Lay an embargo on hatred, malice and envy.

The sons and daughters of poverty in this country have a happy way of uniting beggary and urbanity, which we find at variance in so many others. To them it may be a matter of interest to deport themselves thus, but we never object to a hearty "Thank you!" or a sincere "God bless you! The pleasant look, the frank excuse are improvements on the frown and imposition. A gentle closing of the door or turning on the heel are professedly more humane than a vicious shrug or a wicked "Be-gone!" and an explosion of the door.

You need not be exact in motives of civility, they will be registered elsewhere. Remember this one, however:—"for if ye love them which love you what reward have you? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others?—Do not even the publicans the same." Charity is a virtue, as is civility; none lose by it, none need fear its obligations, they are interest bearing bonds, and have proven to some more valuable than seven-thirties. Some one says that civility is the cheapest coin in circulation, and is never at a discount. Try it.—Waverly Magazine.

POWER OF THE IMAGINATION.—A box, supposed to contain a dead body, was recently forwarded from Boston to Halifax. Such boxes often emit an unpleasant smell, and when this one reached Portland the odor was so offensive a teamster would not load the box into his wagon. A second teamster was sent, and was so affected by the smell that he became sick, discharged freely from his stomach, and would have staggered over the wharf, had he not been caught by those by. After a few more people had detected a "strong smell," it was decided that the box should be opened. This was done, and a very handsome carved Indian figure in wood was disclosed to the gaze of the crest fallen teamsters, everything about it as clean and sweet as a new planed board. It was intended as a sign for some enterprising tobacconist.

CALIFORNIA STYLE.—Not long since a German was riding along Sampson street, near Sacramento, when he heard the whizzing of a ball near him, and felt his hat shake. He turned and saw a man with a revolver in his hand, and took off his hat and found a fresh bullet hole in it.
"Did you shoot at me?" asked the German.
"Yes," replied the other party; "that's my horse; it was stolen from me recently."
"You must be mistaken," said the German. "I have owned the horse for three years."
"Well," said the other, "when I come to look at him I believe that I am mistaken.—Excuse me sir; won't you take a drink?"

MIND WHAT YOU SAY BEFORE CHILDREN.

It is always well to avoid saying everything that is improper; but it is especially so before children. And here parents, as well as others, are often in fault. Children have as many ears as grown persons, and they are generally more attentive to what is said before them. What they hear they are very apt to repeat; and not having sufficient knowledge of the world to disguise anything, it is generally found "that children and fools speak the truth."

See that boy's eyes glisten while you are speaking of a neighbor in a language you would not wish to have repeated. He does not fully understand what you mean; but he will remember every word; and it will be strange if he does not cause you to blush by the repetition.

A gentleman was in the habit of calling at a neighbor's house, and the lady had always expressed to him great pleasure from his calls. One day, just after she had remarked to him, as usual, her happiness from his visit, her little boy entered the room. The gentleman took him on his knee and asked:—
"Are you not glad to see me, George?"
"No, sir," replied the boy.
"Why not, my little man?" he continued.
"Because mother don't want you to come," said George.

Here the mother became crimson, and looked daggers at her little son. But he saw nothing, and therefore replied,—
"Because, she said yesterday, that she wished that old bore wouldn't call here."

That was enough. The gentleman's hat was soon in requisition, and he left with the impression that "great is the truth, and it will prevail."

Another little child looked sharply in the face of a visitor, and being asked what she meant by it, replied,—
"I want to see if you had a drop in your eye; I heard mother say you had frequently."

A boy once asked one of his father's guests who it was that lived next door to him, and when he heard his name, inquired if he was not a fool.
"No my little friend," replied the guest, "he is not a fool but a very sensible man. But why did you ask that question,"
"Because," replied the boy, "mother said the other day that you were next door to a fool; and I wanted to know who lived next door to you."

SIGNING THE PLEDGE—IN HIS OWN WAY.—A man long noted for intemperate habits was induced by Rev. John Abbott to sign the pledge, "in his own way," which he did in these words:
"I pledge myself to drink no intoxicating drinks for one year."
Few believed he would keep it; but at the end of the year he again appeared at a temperance meeting, without having touched a drop.
"Are you going to sign again?" asked Mr. Abbott.
"Yes," replied he, "if I can do it in my own way."
And accordingly he signed the pledge for ninety-nine years.
"And if," said he, "I live to that time it is my intention to take off a life lease."

A few days after, he called on the tavern keeper, who welcomed him back to his old haunts.
"Oh, landlord," said he as if in pain, "I have such a lump on my side."
"That's because you have stopped drinking," said the landlord. "You won't live long if you keep on."
"Will drinking take that lump away?"
"Yes, and if you don't drink you'll soon have a lump on the other side. Come let's have a drink together," and he poured out two glasses of whisky.
"I reckon I won't drink," said the former inebriate, "especially, if keeping the pledge will bring another lump, for it isn't very hard to bear, after all," and with this he drew the lump—a roll of greenbacks—from his side pocket, and walked off, leaving the landlord to his reflections.

A VERY worthy fisherman by the name of Grizzle, was drowned some time since, and all search for his body proved unavailing.—After it had been in the water some months, however, it was discovered floating on the surface, and taken to the shore, whereupon Mr. Smith was dispatched to convey the intelligence to the much afflicted widow.
"Well, Mrs. Grizzle, we have found Mr. Grizzle's body."
"You con't says so!"
"Yes we have—the jury has sot on it, and found it full of eels!"
"You don't say Mr. Grizzle's body is full of eels?"
"Yes it is, and we want to know what you will have done with it?"
"Why, how many eels do you think there is in him?"
"Why, about a bushel."
Well, then, I think you had better send the eels up to the house, and set him again."

THIS is Mark Twain's last: Bummer Jim was a good natured, illiterate, companionable vagabond, who made his living by various inscrutable ways in San Francisco for years, but he came east finally, and old friends got him a birth in Washington as a sort of general superintendent about one of the public buildings. There was a steam engine in his department, and it was the joy of his life. He had never been officially connected with a steam engine before, so he was proud of his new and distinguished, position. He never threw away a chance to lure visitors, by various and specious pretexts, into his engine room; and then expatiate to them on the wonderful machine. One day, a visitor said: "It is a pretty fine engine—no doubt about that. How many horse power is it?"
"Horse power your grandmother!" was Jim's response; "it goes by steam!"

☞There was once a little illiterate gentleman—one Peter Patterson—appointed as a Justice of the Peace. The first day his clerk handed him a duplicate writ:
"Well, wot shall I do with it?" was the query.
"Nothing but sign your initials," was the reply.
"My nishuls? wot's them?"
"Why, two P's," replied the clerk, impatiently.
Cold perspiration stood on the forehead of the unhappy magistrate as he seized a pen, and with desperation in his face, wrote "two peze!"

A COMMANDER, who has been engaged for many years in the survey of the Irish coast, was examined recently before the select committee on the fisheries of Ireland. He stated that the quality of fish in the sea was so vast and unlimited, that all the art of man directed to its capture would have no appreciable effect in diminishing the quantity. "Inde

CONGRESS.

Congress re-assembled on Thursday last, pursuant to the adjournment resolution passed at the July session. There was a quorum in each branch, and both adjourned over till Monday of this week, on which day the Speaker of the HOUSE intended to announce the Standing Committees, and the Judiciary Committee were to report on the proposed impeachment of President JOHNSON. It is understood the majority of the Committee (Messrs. BOUTWELL, WILLIAMS, THOMAS, LAWRENCE and CHURCHILL, Republicans), will report in favor of the impeachment of President JOHNSON, and submit such facts as they believe make it the duty of the House to present articles of impeachment to the Senate. The minority of the Committee (WILSON and WOODBRIDGE, Republicans, ELDRIDGE and MARSHALL, Copperheads), will report adverse to impeachment. It is understood that both reports will be very lengthy, inasmuch as a very large amount of testimony has been taken by the Committee. We hope to give an abstract of these reports in our next issue.

In the House new members were sworn: WASHBURNE of Illinois, who was in Europe when the Congress adjourned; WOODWARD of Pennsylvania, in place of DENISON, deceased; and CARY of Ohio, in place of HAYES, Governor.

All of the Tennessee members were sworn, except R. R. BUTLER, who was charged with having voted for the Secession Ordinance in the Senate of Tennessee in 1861, and with having favored the Rebellion in its earlier stages. Upon these facts, his credentials were referred to the Committee on Elections, with instructions to inquire into these charges. All the Copperheads voted against this inquiry, except AXTELL of California, who was a War Democrat throughout the War. In Copperhead eyes, it is nothing against a man's fitness for office, that he was in the Rebellion from first to last; and they are consistent in so voting, for that has been their position throughout the war. In its darkest hours, they resisted the enactment of the "Test Oath"; and, since that, they have constantly agitated for its repeal. From this position, it is but a short step to the other which they have publicy taken where they are a secure majority (as in Maryland and Kentucky), viz: That men who were voluntarily in the Rebel army ought to be preferred, for public office, over those who served in the Union army.

The President's Annual Message will not come in till the Second Tuesday in December next, the second day of the second Session of the Congress; nor will any of the Department Reports be presented sooner.

Our representative, General KOONTZ, is not in Washington, and will not be till after the Somerset Court which began on Monday last.

Mr. STEVENS was able to be in his seat on Thursday, and remained during most of the sitting. He is probably somewhat feebler than in July, but is much stronger than newspaper accounts led the public to believe. He was warmly welcomed by men of all parties. Previous to the assembling of the House he had been quietly reposing on a sofa in his committee-room, and replied to offers to assist him to his seat by saying, "I can go alone; I am not as dead as some of my newspaper friends have reported me."—His interest in public affairs is unabated; and his views are as clear and strong as ever. He will not be able to participate actively in debate but, in all other respects, will be as influential as before.—He will occupy his old place, the Chairman for Appropriations. Some of the more malignant Copperheads, North and South, have not concealed their disappointment that he has been able to resume his place. Their wishes for his death have been, not covertly insinuated, but openly expressed, for they realize how great a power he has been in the controversy, not yet entirely settled, between the true and false friends of the Union. But Providence has spared him to enter upon a most important session; during which, we hope, he may be able to add to the distinguished public services which mark him as the leading spirit in the era of Reconstruction.

Congress re-assembled on Monday, the House being the centre of attraction, by reason of the impeachment proceedings. The galleries were crowded. After the disposition of some routine business, Mr. BOUTWELL presented the evidence taken by the committee, together with the majority report, signed by himself, and Messrs. CHURCHILL, LAWRENCE, WILLIAMS and THOMAS, in favor of impeachment. Two minority reports, against impeachment, one on the part of Messrs. WILSON and WOODBRIDGE, republicans, and the other from Messrs. ELDRIDGE and MARSHALL, Democratic members of the committee, were also presented. After the reading of a portion of the majority report, the several reports were ordered to be printed, and the subject made the order of the day for Wednesday next. A bill providing for the suspension from office of the President during trial was referred to the Judiciary Committee, a motion to have it acted on at once being voted down. The Speaker announced the regular Standing Committees. Mr. SCHENCK, of Ohio, is appointed Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means.—Mr. STEVENS is continued as Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations.—Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, remains at the head of the Judiciary Committee, to which is also re-appointed the same members as constitute the committee at present. Mr. GARFIELD succeeds Mr. SCHENCK as Chairman of the Military Committee.

THE Northern Copperhead papers find a chief employment in ridiculing the reconstruction Conventions in the Southern States. The "Secession" Conventions of 1861 were more to their mind, than the Reconstruction Conventions of 1867. Anything tainted with the spirit of rebellion, is grateful to them.

IN anticipation of the trial of Jeff. Davis, British papers beg that he be not punished, if convicted.

Yet, Fenian conspirators have recently been convicted and hung in England, who were as pure as angels compared with DAVIS.

WITH the present issue we commence a new volume of the STAR & SENTINEL. Sixty-seven years ago, the SENTINEL was established by ROBERT HARPER, father of the senior member of the present firm, who had previously had control of the FRANKLIN REPOSITORY, and in the fall of 1800 came to Gettysburg and started the new paper. He conducted the SENTINEL until his death, in the fall of 1816, when his son then a lad of 17 years of age, took charge of it, and continued as its sole editor and proprietor until its consolidation with the STAR last May. During these sixty-seven years the Republic has marched steadily on with giant strides in the development of material and political greatness, unparalleled in the histories of nationalities, and to-day challenges precedence in the world by reason of its greatness and power. During these sixty-seven years, the SENTINEL has witnessed the rise and fall of various political organizations, developed by the changing character of the issues which from time to time claimed the attention of the country, and has recorded the definite settlement of many questions which for a time divided great political parties. During all these changes in parties and issues, the SENTINEL has stood firmly and unchangeably in its advocacy of the great principles of constitutional freedom, and to-day advocates essentially the same principles which it espoused in the year of its establishment.

Although the STAR was established subsequent to the SENTINEL, it also lays claim to age and experience, having been established forty years ago during the memorable conflict between the adherents of Adams and Jackson. From that day to this, it has taken an active part in the political arena, and has been an acknowledged power in State and local politics. The consolidation of the two papers has in no wise changed the political character of either. It will be the aim of the editorial management to make the STAR & SENTINEL every way worthy of the liberal support extended to it. With enlarged facilities to which we are daily making additions, we hope to present a Printing Office, in all its details, equal to the best in the State, and a weekly newspaper that may be read with profit in every family.

COPPERHEAD papers are growing very uneasy lest the Southern States may be re-constructed and restored in time to take part in the next Presidential election; and they cry aloud against allowing "negroes to elect the next President." The New York Tribune thus disposes of this Copperhead rant:

"We have but one consolation for The World under this afflicting dispensation of Divine Providence and Thaddeus Stevens; that is, that the negroes of the South always have elected the President since Jackson's Administration. In the capacity of chattels, their importance controlled the white vote which elected Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler, Polk, Taylor, Fillmore, Pierce, and Buchanan. If as slaves they were of sufficient importance to elect eight Presidents, through ballots cast by their masters, will the country perish if as freemen they assist in electing one by casting the ballot themselves? The sooner equal rights are given to any class of oppressed human beings the sooner they will cease to be the disturbing and controlling element in politics. The disfranchised masses of England gave rise to the Reform policy, and so control the Government. The enslaved negroes elected Lincoln. The disfranchised freedmen reconstruct the South; and the disfranchised Rebels carried the recent Northern elections. The quickest way to take away the political consequence of the weak and feeble is to give them their rights."

The Copperhead leaders would rather see the Southern States reduced to anarchy and devastated by another war, than have the Rebel party overthrown in them. But they are not likely to be gratified in either wish.

THE trial of JEFF. DAVIS was to have commenced at Richmond on Monday, but Chief Justice CHASE not having reached the city, nothing was done. Both sides, it is understood, desire his presence on the bench, with Judge UNDERWOOD. District Attorney CHANDLER will be assisted by WM. M. EVARTS, of New York; R. H. DANA, of Boston, and other able counsel, for the Government, while a formidable array of legal talent appear for the defence, including CHARLES O'CONNOR, of New York, and WM. B. REED, of Philadelphia. Among the witnesses summoned for the Government are the Rebel ex-Generals Lee, Magruder, Mahone, Wickham and others.

THE Southern telegrams to the Associated Press are in the rebel interest, are grossly unfair, and often positively false. We put our readers on their guard against them.

A recent telegram, for instance, stated the expense of reconstruction in Virginia, at five millions of dollars! The truth is, the whole expense up to October 1st last, was but $145,000. The telegram was one-fortieth part true! The balance was a clear lie.

This is about the proportion of truth to be found in Copperhead statements about Reconstruction and the condition of the South.

A NEW Daily and Weekly Republican paper is about being established at Harrisburg, the initial number of which is to appear on December 2d. It will be called the State Guard, and will be edited by J. R. DUNGLISON, the private Secretary of Governor GEARY, WIER FORNEY, State Librarian, and LEVI KAUFFMAN, Esq. These gentlemen are old journalists, and have the ability to publish a first class paper. The subscription price will be $6,00 for the daily, and $1,50 for the weekly issue.

THE Copperheads of Louisiana have considerately announced that they will not attempt to break up the Convention now in session in New Orleans to bring that State back to the Union. The Copperheads of Pennsylvania will be mortified at this, as they did, all they could to drive the South into bloodshed, by advising their friends to disregard the Reconstruction Law.

THE London Times is chuckling over Copperhead gains in the late elections. So it rejoiced over Rebel victories during the war.

The tyrants of Europe know their friends.

GENERAL Grant emphatically denies having used any such expression as that attributed to him by Colonel Hillyer, and published in the Copperhead papers, for the purpose of injuring the General in the estimation of the Union party. The machines for the manufacture of lies against the great soldier are already in operation and their fabrications will speedily fill the opposition journals.

Local Items.

GOOD SHOT.—On the 21st inst., GRANVILLE STULTZ, of Highland township, at one shot, killed two Fox Squirrels.

TOM THUMB and wife, with Com. NUTT and MINNIE WARREN, exhibit in Agricultural Hall Wednesday afternoon and evening.

☞REV. T. C. BILLHEIMER late of the Theological Seminary, at this place, has accepted a call from the Lutheran congregation in Watsontown, Northumberland county.

WOOD WANTED.—Those of our subscribers who expect to pay their subscriptions in Wood, will oblige us by delivering it at ONCE. Cold weather is upon us, and if delivered NOW we can use it advantageously.

DRY GOODS have fallen greatly in price and can now be had at nearly the rates that ruled before the war. The advertisements of dry goods, &c., in the STAR & SENTINEL will show our lady readers where the cheap goods can be obtained.

LAW FIRM.—By card in to-day's paper it will be seen that D. MCCONAUGHY, Esq. has associated with him in the practice of law, JOHN M. KRAUTH, Esq. The latter was admitted to the bar last week, after a very creditable examination.

A USEFUL ARTICLE.—We direct the attention of Housekeepers to the Metallic Wire Clothes Line in to-day's paper. It is highly endorsed by those who have used it. LUTHER MCDANNELL, of this place, is Agent for the sale of it.

BEQUEST.—Mrs. SUSAN H. THORN, of Carlisle, who died a few days ago, left a will in which she makes specific bequests to various religious and benevolent objects, in the aggregate amounting to $21,500. Princeton Theological Seminary and the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg each receive $2,500.

INSTALLATION.—We observe that Rev. JOHN R. WARNER, lately of this place, has been recently installed as Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Kirkwood, Missouri.—Rev. S. J. NICCOLES, formerly of Chambersburg, Vicar of St. Louis, assisted in the ceremony.

☞REV. MR. BEITS, one of the oldest Lutheran ministers in the country, recently died in Lancaster, Pa. In his Will he directs his Library to be divided between the Lutheran Theological Seminaries at Gettysburg and Philadelphia.

THANKSGIVING.—Thursday, the 28th, has been designated by Gov. GEARY to be observed by the people of Pennsylvania as a day of Thanksgiving. It will be generally recognized throughout the country, the President and a number of Governors having designated the same day.

NEW COUNTERFEIT.—Spurious twenty-five cent notes have just made their appearance. They may be known by the paper being a trifle thicker than the genuine, and the green on the back a trifle lighter.—The vignette of Fessenden is, at first glance, fully as correct as that of the genuine; but a close scrutiny shows that it is a good woodcut, and not a steel engraving.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On the 14th inst. Mr. JACOB DRESLER, of Union township, died very suddenly while on his way to work, some distance from his residence. In company with a neighbor he left his home, and on the way sat down to rest, and while there but a few moments he was observed to fall over, and instantly expired. His age was about 48 years.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Moses Raffensperger has nearly finished a fine two-story brick house, and George Plank a handsome two-story brick house and barn in Arendtsville. Other improvements are talked of to be made in the spring.

Anthony K. Myers has recently much improved his dwelling in Latimore township, including the addition of a large back building, 2½ stories, brick.

SENSIBLE.—HORACE GREELEY gets off a good thing now and then. In a lecture recently delivered on "Advertising," he said: "Some men who know enough to advertise are yet so narrow-minded as to confine their advertisements to journals of their own creed and party. If they do not choose to trade with any but men of like faith, this is wise; but if they desire the whole public for customers, it is otherwise."

BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—Application was made at the Court last week for the charter of a Building Association at Petersburg, (Y. S.) The Association founded in this place last spring, has proved a success. The stock is commanding a high premium, while the town is reaping the benefits of the association in a number of new buildings started since the Association was formed.

ALMOST A FIRE.—We are informed that DANIEL BAKER'S hotel, in East Berlin, made a narrow escape from being consumed by fire, one day week before last. The circumstances which led to it, are as follows: One of the family sent a child for a box of matches in the second story of the building. Soon after the child returned with the matches, and a few moments later some of the neighbors discovered smoke in a room in the second story. On arriving at the room, it was discovered that a bed in it was all in a blaze and partially burned up. Some of the wood work of the building that came in contact with the flames, had already been scorched by the heat. The fire was soon extinguished. The child, it is supposed, played with the matches, and thus set fire to the building.—Hanover Citizen.

MELANCHOLY DEATH.—Mr. HENRY LOWER, a respectable and substantial farmer, and owner of what was long known as Bell's Mill, in Butler township, this county, met a sad and somewhat mysterious death on Wednesday last. After breakfast he went to a quarry on his farm adjoining that on which he resided, and occupied by his son JOHN LOWER, for the purpose of getting out some stone for a dwelling and barn he was prepared to build. Not coming to dinner at the usual time, his son went for him, and found him lying in the quarry, lifeless, one arm and both legs broken and his body bruised and crushed—resulting, it is supposed, from the falling of earth and stone from the top of the bank upon him—a large rock being found near him, which is supposed to have rolled over him. His death is lamented by a large relationship, and the community generally.

AFFIXING POSTAGE STAMPS.—The U. S. Mail, the official organ of the Post-office Department, in reply to inquiries as to the duty of Postmasters in regard to affixing stamps on letters handed to them at the post-office, accompanied by the necessary amount of postage money, say—"The duty of a postmaster in regard to this matter is very clear. It is to see that all matter sent from his office, on which pre-payment is required, is prepaid by stamps. It is not his duty to affix the stamps; that is the business of the person who deposits the matter in the post-office. There are circumstances under which it is proper for a postmaster or clerk to affix them, as a matter of common courtesy or charity—as in the case of a woman, a child, a cripple, an aged or very ignorant person; but he is not only not required to do it in ordinary cases, but it is, for various reasons, very desirable that he should not make a practice of it. Where it involves a neglect of his regular prescribed duties, it should never be done."

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Court continued in session during the week, adjourning on Saturday noon. We annex a condensed report of the cases disposed of.

IN COMMON PLEAS.

Henry Mayer and John Yeager vs. Peter Doll and others.—Issue to try the validity of the will of Sarah Doll, deceased. The trial occupied two days, the contestants endeavoring to show that the deceased, who resided in Abbottstown, at the time of making her will, was not in condition to enable her to make an intelligent disposition of her estate. The jury thought otherwise, and rendered a verdict in favor of the Will.

George B. Brandt, Administrator of Thos. Stephens, deceased, vs. John Evans, Administrator of Henry Fickel, deceased. A compromise verdict was taken in this case by consent of parties, for defendant.

Edwin P. Fisher vs. Sylvester Harner.—Replevin for a grey mare. Plaintiff had sold the mare in dispute to a third party, who, after getting possession, transferred her to defendant, claiming to have acted as defendant's agent in the purchase—the latter having a claim on plaintiff, declined payment for the mare. Plaintiff refused to recognize the agency, and brought suit to recover the mare at her value. Verdict for plaintiff $91 89.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

Commonwealth vs. Benjamin Klouser.—Surety of the peace, on oath of Elizabeth Yingling. Defendant directed to pay all the costs.

Comm. vs. Geo. W. Rex.—Selling liquor to minors. Verdict, not guilty, and prosecutor, George Dittenhafer, to pay all the costs.

Comm. vs. Same.—Selling liquor on Sunday, on information of the same. Nolle prosequi entered by leave of Court, for want of evidence.

Comm. vs. Daniel Small.—Fornication and bastardy, on oath of Matilda Shull. Verdict, guilty, and usual sentence.

Comm. vs. John Slonaker.—Larceny of a gun from Christian Sheffer. Both plaintiff and defendant lived in same house, in Cumberland township, and not on most pleasant terms—using each other's property in common, as suited their fancies. The jury did not think under the circumstances, plaintiff had any felonious intent, and rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Comm. vs. John Martin.—Larceny of chickens from Richard Mummert, of Oxford township. Verdict, guilty. Sentenced to county prison 60 days, and to pay costs of prosecution.

Comm. vs. Philip Group.—Malicious Mischief, in injuring the sale of cider and vinegar, property of Jacob Brame, of Latimore township. Verdict, guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs; and give security in sum of $200 to keep the peace for two years.

Comm vs. Silas Griner.—Malicious mischief. Defendant in previous case made the information in this case, involving the same charge, being in the nature of a cross-fire, Griner having previously testified against Group. Verdict, not guilty, but prosecutor and defendant each to pay half the costs.

Comm. vs. Charles Heist.—Indictment for House-breaking, on information of Hiram Kepner, who charged defendant with having entered his residence through a window, during his absence. Defendant admitted having so entered, but not with felonious intent, his object being to get a gun to shoot a hawk. The jury thought there was no felonious intent, and rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Comm. vs. John Vanhausta and Mary Vanhausta. Indictment for larceny of clothing, property of David Brinkerhoff, of Straban township. Defendants plead guilty, and were sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment and to pay costs.

Comm. vs. Same.—Larceny of clothing, property of Druscilla Herbst, residing with Mr. Brinkerhoff. Defendants plead guilty, and were sentenced to 30 days' additional imprisonment.

Comm. vs. Adam McElroy and Wm. McElroy.—Assault and Battery, on information of James Thompson. Indictment ignored by Grand Jury. Prosecutor to pay costs.

Comm. vs. James Thompson.—Assault and Battery, on information of Adam McElroy. Indictment ignored, and prosecutor to pay costs.

Comm. vs. Hezekiah Motter.—Charge, administering drugs to produce abortion, on information of Henry Willet. Indictment ignored by Grand Jury.

Comm. vs. J. R. Metcalfe, Eli Arnold, Edward Dotterar, John Trimmer, and Cornelius Larew.—Charge, Riot and Assault and Battery, on information of Washington Myers. Ignored by Grand Jury, and county to pay costs.

Isaac Kane, convicted of stealing Jacob R. Witmor's horse, at August term, was granted a new trial.

PROPERTY SALES.—The real estate of Sebastian Hafer, deceased, in the borough of Abbottstown, was recently sold, as follows: No. 1—the corner property, late residence of decedent, was bought by Wm. Hafer, at $3,350; No. 2—house and three acres of land, by Wm. Bittinger, $1,125; No. 3—three acres adjoining, by Wm. Bittinger, at $600; No. 4—three acres adjoining, by Wm. Bittinger, at $475; No. 5—three acres adjoining, by Wm. Bittinger at $505.

John McMaster has sold a tract of 16 acres, with the buildings, in Mountpleasant township, to Nicholas Kephart, of York county, at $1,550—and 2½ acres of timber adjoining, at $180 per acre—parts of the Spitler property.

Adam Hartlaub has sold his farm, in Mountjoy township, to John Sheely.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Adams County Teachers' Institute met at New Oxford on Monday, and will continue in session until Friday evening, the new act requiring Institutes to be kept open five days. The attendance, we learn, is large and encouraging. On Monday evening Rev. Dr. BROWN addressed the Institute on the importance of Vocal Music in Common Schools, and Dr. PFEIFFER on the Laws of Health, Ventilation, &c. On Tuesday evening the Institute was addressed by Prof. BOYD, and Hon. J. P. WICKERSHAM, State Superintendent. This evening Prof. EHRENHART will lecture on "Geology and Revelation." Thursday evening addresses will be delivered by Hon. C. R. COBURN, Prof. THOMSON, Prof. BROOKS, and Mr. SHEELY. Besides these addresses, there will be essays, reports, &c., by members of the Institute at the various meetings.

It is to be regretted that this County Institute and the Sabbath School Convention were fixed for the same week, as there are many persons who would have been glad to attend both. It is but proper to say, however, that the Sabbath School Convention was fixed for this week, to suit the convenience of Rev. TAYLOR and others, of Philadelphia, and in ignorance of the fact that the Teachers' Institute had adjourned to meet as above. The conflict in time was ascertained only after engagements had been made, which could not be changed.

S. S. CONVENTION.—The Sunday School Convention now being held in this place, has been a perfect success, the attendance being large and exercises very interesting. On Monday evening Rev. Dr. HAY opened the exercises in an introductory address and welcome, and was followed by JACOB A. GARDNER who delivered an interesting address on the "Origin and object of Sabbath School Instruction," Rev. ALFRED TAYLOR closing with an exercise in Blackboard instruction, on the words "I have sinned."—Yesterday morning Ex-Gov. POLLOCK spoke eloquently on the advantages of an open Bible and the importance of "Bible classes," Rev. TAYLOR following with a Blackboard exercise on the 57th Psalm. In the afternoon there was a gathering of the Sunday School children, the house being densely crowded, Rev. A. TAYLOR, Dr. WILLITS and Ex-Gov. POLLOCK addressing the children. Last evening Rev. Dr. WILLITS delivered an eloquent address on the "New features of Sabbath School Instruction," followed by another interesting Blackboard exercise by Mr. TAYLOR, and a discussion of the question, "How to retain the older scholars in Sabbath Schools?" participated in by Rev. S. BARNITZ, Dr. HAY, J. A. GARDNER, D. A. BUEHLER, Dr. BROWN, and Dr. SCHMUCKER. The sessions will be continued this morning and to-night.

HARTMAN & SADLER at York Springs have just opened a large stock of Fall and Winter Goods of the latest styles, and having purchased when goods were at the lowest decline, are prepared to sell them astonishingly cheap. Our readers in that vicinity will save money by calling and examining their goods and prices. It

It is announced, that at the termination of the present tour of the Tom Thumb troup, Commodore Nutt (of twenty-five pounds,) will lead to the alter little Minnie Warren (of twenty pounds.) Their united fortunes, accumulated by their public exhibitions within six years, are said to amount to a quarter of a million of dollars.

EDITORS' BOOK TABLE.

THE GALAXY, for December, completes the fourth volume of this Magazine, which is one of the best on our exchange. The publishers announce their purpose to make the succeeding volumes of the magazine still more valuable and attractive than those already issued—the aim being to make the Galaxy a Magazine which, while it shall always be readable and entertaining, shall also maintain a high standard of literary excellence. Horace Greely, William Swinton, Richard Grant White, H. T. Tuckerman, Bayard Taylor, Theodore Tilton, Anna Cora Ritchie, and other popular writers, will contribute to the next volume, while Hennessy, Linton, Fay and Fenn will furnish the illustrations. Single subscriptions $3.50 a year, two copies, $6; five copies, $14; ten copies, $25; twenty copies, $50, and one free copy to the person who sends the club. Subscriptions should be addressed to W. C. & F. P. Church, No. 39 Park Row, New York.

☞We are indebted to TICKNOR & FIELDS, Boston, for a neat copy of "American Notes for General Circulation, by CHARLES DICKENS." This is the work, which, after Mr. DICKENS' return to Europe from his American trip, excited so much bitter remark. The plainness with which he portrayed the defects in American social life, was thought to be an unkind return for the marked courtesies extended to him. After all, the candid, thoughtful American reader may have more cause to quarrel with the defects themselves than with Mr. DICKENS for exposing them. As Mr. DICKENS is about delivering a series of lectures in this country, TICKNOR & FIELDS—his only authorized American publishers—have done a wise thing in putting on the market a new edition of the American Notes, assured that the sober, second thought of our people will furnish ample vindication against the harsh criticisms which their first appearance called forth.

"COMETH UP AS A FLOWER," is the title of an autobiographical story of the richest kind just issued by D. Appleton & Co., New York. The London Times speaks of it with great praise. Its chief merits consist in the powerful and vigorous manner in which it is told, in the exceeding beauty and poetry of its sketches of scenery, and in the soliloquies, sometimes quaintly humorous, sometimes cynically bitter, sometimes plaintive and melancholy, which are uttered by the heroine.—It is written by a lady—a new hand, and is said to be so extraordinarily good, that whenever you begin it you cannot lay it down again, hardly even when it is finished. New York: D. Appleton & Co. Price, 60 cents.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, for December, is a holiday number, containing two handsome Steel Engravings called "The Happiest Time," "The Immortal Crown," also expressly engraved for this magazine, of the very first quality in every respect. Then we have a handsomely Colored Engraving of a "Jewel-Case and Pin-Cushion:" and a Double-Page Fashion Plate, finely engraved on Steel; with a number of Wood Engravings illustrative of the Fashions, Needle-Work, &c., with the usual piece of Music, worth of itself the cost of the book.—The Literary Matter is as choice as usual—"Only a Glove," by Gabrielle Lee; "How a Woman Had Her Way," by Elizabeth Prescott; "German Lessons," by E. B. Ripley; "The Old Maid," a Poem by Florence Percy; "Preserved Flowers;" "Disillusion; or Mary of the Mill and the Countess Maria;" "Flower Stand and Vase," Editorials, &c. Great inducements in the way of Premiums, &c., are promised to new subscribers, and our readers should sent for a sample copy, containing all these liberal offers. Sample copies will be sent for fifteen cents. Price (with engraving) $2.50 a year; Four copies (with one engraving) $6.00. One copy of Lady's Friend and one of Saturday Evening Post (and one engraving), $4.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

OLIVER OPTIC'S MAGAZINE.—This favorite of the young folks comes to our table weekly, filled with choice and attractive reading for Boys and Girls. "Oliver Optic," the editor, is widely known as a popular juvenile writer and gives his contributions exclusively to this publication. The publishers have made liberal arrangements for the coming year, and announce their determination to make this magazine the cheapest and most acceptable juvenile in the country. We advise our young friends to subscribe for it. LEE & SHEPHARD, publishers, 149 Washington street, Boston.—$2.50 per annum, 3 copies $6.50, 5 copies $10

GODEY LADY'S BOOK.—The December number of this old and popular Periodical, is really what its Proprietor pronounces to be, a "Prize Number." Its embellishments consist of six costly and beautiful plates, one of which is a representation of a Chrismas party, showing the contrast between poverty and affluence, which is exceedingly appropriate to the season and the mounth. The others give the fashions for December, and picture other matters of interest. In the work department will be found the usual amount of embroidery, braiding, &c., while the literary department is filled with excellent articles, including several stories by popular writers.

As the New Year is approaching, this is the time to commence making up clubs, the rates of which are two copies one year $5.50; three $7.50; four $10 and five $14.00 with an extra copy to the person getting up the club.

CHURCHES OF THE UNITED STATES.—The report on the state of religion in the United States, prepared by Rev. Henry B. Smith, D. D., of the Union Theological Seminary, and presented to the General Conference of the Evangelical Alliance recently in session at Amsterdam, is a document of great interest and value, containing within a small compass a vast amount of information in regard to the state and progress of religion in this country. STOVES! STOVES! for sale at S. G. COOK'S (formerly Andrew Polley's) York street, Gettysburg. Particular attention is called to the Small & Smyser Pennsylvania Cook, No. 8. The fire place of this stove is long enough to take in a two foot stick of wood, which makes it the cheapest stove in the market. It has been thoroughly tried by hundreds of persons, and never failed to give satisfaction. He has the exclusive sale of this stove in Gettysburg, and also of the celebrated Empire and Oriental Self-feeding Base Burners—two of the most perfect Stoves ever invented. NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

THE MORMON COUNTRY.—The anomalous territory of Utah receives its population chiefly from Europe. Few converts to the later doctrine of Mormonism are gathered from the United States. But the Mormon missionaries seem to exert a peculiar fascination over the peasantry of Great Britain and of the nothern kingdoms of Europe. New recruits for the colony are constantly arriving from these countries. A few weeks ago a steamer left Liverpool with four hundred Mormon disciples, mostly young, between the ages of eighteen and twenty-eight, and about equally divided in sex. Not long ago a company of four hundred arrived at New York, emigrants from Denmark, Sweden and Norway. The territory is gaining rapidly in population and wealth, and Brigham Young is establishing different kinds of manufactures to increase the variety of its industrial resources. It is very doubtful if any successor can maintain the authority of leadership which he has won by shrewdness and mental force. The whole history of this delusion is a disgrace to the civilization and religion of the nineteenth century, and a blot on the free institutions of America.—Providence Journal.

THERE are now strong indications that the union of the different branches or "schools" of the Presbyterian church, which has been mooted for several years past, will soon be accomplished. A convention of representatives from the separate associations was held in Philadelphia recently, for the purpos of developing a feasible plan of union. George H. Stuart was the presiding officer. A plan was adopted, which provides for the recognition of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the toleration of Heidelberg Confession, makes the Divine authority of the Bible an indispensable principle, and while recommending the use of the Psalms provides for the toleration of the ordinary hymns. The action of this convention has no binding effect, of course, but is likely to have a great influence in bringing this divided sect into a united Christain body.

IRON IN THE BLOOD.

The necessity of a due proportion of iron in the blood is well known to all medical men; when it becomes reduced from any cause whatever, the whole system suffers. the weakest part being first attacked, and a feeling of languor, lassitude, and "all goneness" pervades the system. Stimulants only afford temporary relief, and have the same effect as giving a tired horse the whip instead of oats. The true remedy is to supply the blood with the necessary quantity of iron. This can be done by using the a protected solution of the protoxide of Iron, which is so prepared that it assimilates at once with the blood, giving strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

To take medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of IRON IN THE BLOOD, without restoring it to the system is like trying to rep ir a building when the foundation is gone.

An eminent divine says: "I have been using the PERUVIAN SYRUP for some time past; it gives me new vigor, buoyancy or spirits, elasticity of muscle."

Pamphlets containing certificates of cures, and recommendations from some of the most eminent physicians clergymen and others, will be sent free to any address.

The genuine has "PERUVIAN SYRUP" blown in the g ass.

Which so disfigure the appearance, Purging the evil effects of Mercury, and removing all taints, the remnants of Diseases, hereditary or otherwise, and is taken by Adults and Children with perfect Safety.

Two Tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoctions as usually made.

An Interesting Letter is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, in certain affections by Benjamin Travers, F. R. C. S., etc., speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. PATENT
Metallic or White Wire
FOR CLOTHES LINES.

SIX REASONS why every family should have one of these Patent White Wire Clothes Lines:

1st. You never have to take it in, no matter what the weather may be; the weather will not affect it.

2d. It will last from twenty to fifty years, and during that time you will wear out fifty ordinary lines, besides suffering an untold amount of trouble and annoyance with them.

3d. It is the cheapest Line in the world, to say nothing of it great convenience. A good rope line costs about 1 ct per foot, and this only 3 cts. This Wire, at 25 cents per foot, is cheaper than a rope line.

4th. You cannot load it heavy enough with clothes, and the wind never blows strong enough, to break it—1500 lbs. being the breaking weight.

5th. It does not in any way discolor, wear or injure clothes that are hung upon it, and they never freeze to it. The finest fabrics can be removed instantly in the coldest weather without injury. This is a decided advantage over the rope line.

6th. It will save its price in saving you trouble and annoyance every three months you own it.

Price 3 cents per foot. Money refunded if not found exactly as represented, after the most thorough trial.

Grand Jury Report.

TO the honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions:

The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania inquiring in and for the County of Adams, at November Sessions, 1867, beg leave to report that we visited the Alms House and County Jail. We found the papers well provided for, the buildings clean, and every thing comfortable. There have been between four and five hundred yards of ditching done, which was very necessary; the barn much improved by new weather boarding and painting. The Steward deserves the thanks of the people of the county for his attention and care.—We would recommend that the north end of the Insane Hospital be repaired, and in the main building at the north corner a new stove be put in.

At the Jail we found the rooms clean, the prisoners comfortable, the Deputy Sheriff obliging and careful, and would recommend some improvement to be made in some of the cells, and the bake oven to have a new roof of tile repaired.

Miscellaneous.

500 MILES

OF THE

Union Pacific Railroad,

RUNNING WEST FROM OMAHA

ACROSS THE CONTINENT,

ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THE Union Pacific Railroad Company have built a longer line of railroad in the last eighteen months than was ever built by any other company in the same time, and they will continue the work with the same energy until it is completed. The Western Division is being pushed rapidly east and west from Sacramento by the Central Pacific Company of California, and it is expected that to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870. MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE WORK HAS ALREADY BEEN DONE. MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE WHOLE LINE IS NOW IN RUNNING ORDER, AND MORE LABORERS ARE NOW EMPLOYED UPON IT THAN EVER BEFORE. More than have already been expended by the two powerful companies that have undertaken the enterprise, and there is no lack of funds for its most vigorous prosecution. When the United States Government found it necessary to secure the construction of the Union Pacific Railroad, to develop and protect its own interests, it gave the Companies authorized to build it such ample aid as should render its speedy completion beyond a doubt. The available means of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, derived from the Government and its own stockholders, may be briefly summed up as follows:

THE ENTIRE GRAND LINE

1.—UNITED STATES BONDS

Having thirty years to run and bearing six per cent. currency interest at the rate of $16,000 per mile for 577 miles on the Plains; then at the rate of $48,000 per mile for 150 miles through the Rocky Mountains; then at the rate of $32,000 per mile for the remaining distance, for which the United States takes a second lien as security. The interest on these bonds is paid by the United States government, which also pays the company one half the amount of its bills in money for transporting its freight, troops, mails, &c. The remaining half of these bills is placed to the company's credit, and forms a sinking fund which may finally discharge the whole amount of this lien.—The claims against the government since April of the current year amount to four and one-half times this interest

2.—FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.

By its charter the Company is permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to the same amount as the bonds issued by the government, and no more, and only as the road progresses. The Trustees for the bondholders are the Hon. E. D. Morgan, U. S. Senator from New York, and the Hon. Oakes Ames, Member of U. S. House of Representatives, who are responsible for the delivery of these bonds to the Company in strict accordance with the terms of the law.

3.—THE LAND GRANT.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company has a land grant or absolute donation from the government of 12,800 acres to the mile on the line of the road, which will not be worth less than $1 50 per acre at the lowest valuation.

4.—THE CAPITAL STOCK.

The authorized capital of the Union Pacific Railroad Company is $100,000,000, of which over $5,000,000 have been paid on the work already done.

THE MEANS SUFFICIENT TO BUILD THE ROAD.

Contracts for the entire work of building 914 miles of first-class railroad west from Omaha, comprising much of the most difficult mountain work, and embracing every expense except surveying, have been made with responsible parties (who have already finished over 500 miles), at the average rate of sixty-eight thousand and fifty-eight dollars ($68,058) per mile. This price includes all necessary shops for construction and repairs of cars, depots, stations and all other incidental buildings, and also locomotives, passenger, baggage, and freight cars, and other requisite rolling stock, to an amount that shall not exceed than $8,000 per mile. Allowing the cost of the remaining one hundred and eighty-six of the eleven hundred miles assumed to be built by the Pacific Company to be $9,000 per mile.

The Total Cost of Eleven Hundred Miles will be as follows:

914 miles, at $68,058	$62,245,212
186 miles, at $9,000	1,674,000
Add discounts on bonds, surveys, &c	4,569,040
Amount	$68,445,052

As the U. S. Bonds are equal to money, and the Company's own First Mortgage Bonds have a ready market we have as the

Available Cash Resources for Building Eleven Hundred Miles:

U. S. Bonds	$27,200,000
First Mortgage Bonds	20,400,000
Capital Stock paid in on the work now in progress	5,000,000
Land Grant, 14,080,000 acres, at $1 50 per acre	21,120,000
Total	$83,145,052

The company have ample facilities for supplying any deficiency that may arise in funds for carrying on the work. This may be done wholly or in part by additional subscriptions to capital stock.

Active inquiry has already been made for a portion of these lands, and arrangements are now progressed together for more favorable terms. While their whole value will not be available, or some years to come, they will remain a very important source of revenue to the Company. The latest of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, derived from the Government and its own stockholders, may be briefly summed up as follows:

FUTURE BUSINESS.

The most sceptical have never expressed a doubt that when the Union Pacific Railroad was finished the immense business that must flow over it, as the only railroad connecting the two grand divisions of the North American continent, will be one of the wonders of railway transportation: and as it will have no competitor it can always charge remunerative rates.

EARNINGS FROM WAY BUSINESS.

During the quarter ending July 31, an average of 325 miles of the Union Pacific Railroad was in operation.—The Superintendent's Report shows the following result

EARNINGS.

Passengers, Freight, Telegraph and Mails	$723,755 54
Transportation of Contractors' Material and Men	479,283 41
Total	$1,203,038 95

EXPENSES.

Fuel, Repairs, Offices, Conductors, Trains, &c.	$395,350 92
NET EARNINGS to balance	807,688 03
Total	$1,203,038 95

The net operating expenses on the commercial business for the quarter were $395,350 92, which account for the COMMERCIAL BUSINESS stands as follows:

Earnings for May, June and July	$723,755 54
Expenses	2,794 96
Net Profits	$485,780 04

The amount of Bonds the Company can issue on 325 miles, at $16,000 per mile, is $5,200,000. Interest in gold three months, at 6 per cent., on this sum, is $78,000; add 40 per cent premium, to correspond with currency earnings, is $109,200—showing that the net earnings for this quarter were [illegible] more than four times the interest on the First Mortgage Bonds for the whole length of road.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

whose principal is amply provided for, and whose interest is so thoroughly secured, must be classed among the safest investments. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD, and are offered for the present at NINETY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, and accrued interest at six Per Cent. in Currency from July 1.

Many parties are taking advantage of the present high price of Government stocks to exchange for these Bonds, which are over FIFTEEN PER CENT. CHEAPER, and, at the current rate of premium on gold pay
